Dedication

This book is dedicated to everyone who desires a life of happiness, joy, fulfillment, love and above all, peace for humanity.

Most of all, for the next generation of inspired children who are our future and hope, this book is for you...

In addition: our four beautiful children: Amber, Ben, Ryan and Hunter. You light our lives with love and happiness. Inspire your generation to live the life we all need to achieve!

To my sister Naomi: Your fight for love and light is such a blessing to your children.

For my parents: No matter what our differences in the past have been, know that I will always love you.

To my Grandfather: Thank you for your loving support, understanding, and total acceptance of the work we are doing.

“We are all stars in the universe,
Elemental and beautiful.

Sometimes we fall from grace.
Often there is no one to catch us.

My hope is that
The Collective Speaks cradles
You from falling,
Heals you and places you back
In the cosmos.

For you always have been and
Now shall be again, a shining star.”

The Collective Whispers - Do You Hear?

There is a life enriched with endless joy and passion, filled with deep rewards. A world without fear. No wars. No hate. No treachery. A place where it is safe to walk down the street. Where your children can play outside and return safely. Life is no longer painful. No more self hate. No more lies. Your spirit soars and the mere sight of others brings you to tears of joy. No more anger. No more pain from others. No more misunderstandings that shatter families.

You only work to enrich your spirit, soul and your community, not as an endless task to barely provide the most basic needs.

Abundance of life is endless. The very mountains overflow with vast goodness for all. The community you live in blesses each other in constant cycles of respect and friendship. You are filled with love and joy. The promise of paradise is within your grasp.

Your children understand you and look to you for real love and guidance. You are deeply in love with the world and see beauty, unbelievable beauty, in all things, people, and moments.

-The Collective

Who Are The Collective?

They are a great gathering of powerful, ancient spirit beings of light. Shining spiritual stars, their influence has been felt over the many thousands of years as they have struggled to guide humanity out of self-inflicted darkness. They have banded together in order to teach and shape all people, as this world is also their proving ground in the never ending cycle of birth, life, and death.

The Collective seeks the continuation and growth of all people as one world order of love, joy, and goodness. They fight against the darker forces that have plagued humanity. The Collective wishes to enlighten humanity as well: to help countless lost and downtrodden become powerful agents of light and purity doing lifesaving work and in tune with other like-minded beings. They seek the end to corporate greed, wanton destruction of the earth, countless wars, and the needless hunger and suffering that plagues the world.

The Collective wishes to supplant many of today's corrupt leaders, by using the great winds of change. This will encourage destruction of their wicked works.

This will be done with love and training of younger ones until enough people desire this change so strongly that it simply must happen. The Collective will also bring focus, clarity and allow us to "awaken" our inner power, something we lost by allowing civilization to overtake our instincts and remove our wisdom.

The Collective wants to reach our children the most. They are our one true hope for the future. They have a remarkable plan for us all, a great mission that will expand many generations, turning this world into what it was truly intended to be; a paradise of art, music, love, creation, and worldwide peace.

Since our lives are experienced in levels of growth, I have divided this book into seven levels. Each represents a milestone in our life. Each is critical to spiritual, mental and physical wellbeing.

Please read then re-read this entire book, level by level.

Read a level then truly take the words into your heart and meditate on the powerful meanings behind the words.

There are many wise and beautiful quotes placed in this book from some of the greatest inspirational teachers this world has ever known. Some of these great teachers were also the children of The Collective as well. The Collective have been whispering their words to humanity over the many thousands of years. It may surprise you to know how many of their children knew these universal secrets. Therefore, it seemed appropriate that I too, should honor these beautiful beings words of wisdom in this marvelous book.

It is here in The Collective Speaks- that I placed all these marvelous words so you may learn from them. Many secrets are woven into them. Read them and fathom the depths of it.

Study and learn. Read and re-read the sacred words of -The Collective. This is direct information for all of humanity.

Let these words be your guiding light and may you come to live your life the way it was always intended.

Love and Blessings,
Victoria, Michael and

"Our Society Is A Mental And Physical Pressure Cooker And We All Feel It. The Very Air Is Charged With HATE; What Will Become Of Us?"
-E.Manning

The Result Of This

We are ALL immersed in our own pain and deep held sadness. We are not capable of offering our best to life, society and other people.

We are angry all the time and seek to end our pain by causing suffering to others. Nothing seems good to us. Nothing ever can.

We are confused; so many so called help gurus out there and we we don't know what to believe -

And we as a society overlook the most critical thing to happiness; Deep and spiritual wisdom that will solve our problems - problems mastered centuries ago -

The Collective Speaks -

"We know you better than you know yourself. You think you are spiritual yet you still cause great pain and suffering, to yourself, to others;

You are lost even though you profess wisdom - we speak on behalf of the ancients and we see the foolishness of your life.

We are here to help you understand the most basic truths, simple to us however to you great revelations; We WILL teach you to master your life and gain mastery over all things you desire. It will not be easy.

Do not believe the words of many who seek to deceive. Spiritual power is within your grasp but you must desire this change very greatly or you will not succeed. Together we will unlock the secrets you desperately need. We love you more than you can ever imagine however we can not help you, unless you return to your senses."

-The Collective

This is just one of the many guiding points in The Collective Speaks. The Collective does talk to humanity on many different subjects all revealed below:

"Without this critical wisdom there seems to be no chance at peace and true happiness for humanity." -M.Kelley

Then one day as a child I found beautiful art book. The painting inside touched my heart and triggered something so primal inside me I began to dedicate my life to discovering why this happened.

"I know what I have to share with you is so monumental, so mind altering and so different from most of the babble about "The Law Of Attraction" or similar new age nonsense - it will profoundly change your life and you can read it in one evening!"
